Om kunstnerne

Allerede kort tid efter klavertrioen blev dannet i 2020, debuterede de i Wigmore Hall i The Parkhouse Award (2021). Og i 2022 vandt de som det første danske ensemble 1. pris i The 9th International Johannes Brahms Chamber Music Competition samt flere specialpriser heriblandt den bedste fortolkning af et værk af Brahms.

På trods af trioens korte eksistens, har alle tre musikere som individualister stor kammermusikerfaring at bidrage med i deres fælles stræben efter at finde deres eget originale udtryk og fortolkninger. Heriblandt samarbejder med Nikolaj Szeps-Znaider, Kathryn Stott, Enrico Pace og Barnabas Kelemen, Eckhardt Runge m.fl.

Heathcliff Trio har optrådt i store dele af Europa i lande som Danmark, Norge, Østrig, Tyskland, Frankrig, Spanien, Holland, England, Polen og Schweiz.

Seneste højdepunkter i sæson 22/23 inkluderer engagementer i The Harrogate International Festival, K&M Festival Stavanger, Hobro

Musikforening, Kammermusik Odense (DR P2-transmission), ChamberFest Munich (Bayerischen Rundfunks, transmission), og The Gdansk Music Festival.

Sæson 23/24 vil trioens optræde i Hindsgavl Festival, K&M Festival Stavanger, hvor de for nyligt at blevet udnævnt til Ensemble in Residence og Aldeburgh Jubilee Hall hvor de er udnævnt til Britten Pears Young Artist 23/24.

Heathcliff Trio er baseret i København og Wien, hvor de studerer på solistuddannelsen med professor Tim Frederiksen på Det Kgl. Danske Musikkonservatorium. Derudover er trioens aktivt medlem af European Chamber Music Academy vejledt af kunstnerisk leder og professor Johannes Meissl. Trioens har fået yderligere kunstnerisk sparring med Avedis Kouyoumdjian, Hatto Bayerle (Alban Berg Quartet), Patrick Jüdt, Eckhardt Runge, Dirk Mommertz, Cuarteto Casals og The Danish String Quartet.

About the music ...

Josef Haydn composed over 40 piano trios throughout his career. Around the time of the creation of Hob. XV:27 in 1797, Haydn was experiencing a shift in his compositional style after his highly successful trips to London and his transition from serving as the esteemed court composer for the Esterházy family to a more independent or free role.

In London he had achieved great fame and recognition and was exposed to a wealth of musical influences and had the opportunity to hear some of his own works performed by highly skilled musicians. This experience had a profound impact on his musical style and provided him with fresh inspiration upon his return to Vienna. The Piano

Trio in C Major reflects the joy and vibrancy that characterized Haydn's compositions during this fruitful period.

Ravels Piano Trio in A minor was initially conceived as a single movement. Ravel began working on the piece in 1914 and intended it to be a tribute to his friend and fellow composer, Claude Debussy, who had recently passed away.

However, as Ravel delved deeper into the composition, he realized that the emotional and expressive scope of the piece required a more expansive structure. He eventually decided to expand it into a four-movement work, allowing him to explore a wider range of musical ideas and themes.
