

“THE CHAMBER MUSIC WEEKS”

AT THE HINDSGAVL CASTLE

AUGUST 5TH TO 12TH
AND
AUGUST 12TH TO 19TH
1966

16th season

In his treatise "Enten — Eller" (Either — Or) Søren Kierkegaard mentions how the experience of Mozart's music for "Don Juan" for him was a confirmation that everything belongs and depends of "a well-organized Whole" — a reflection, which Kierkegaard transfers to "Idealernes Verden" (The World of the Ideals), where "here again there is a rulling Wisdom, which can be admirably conceived by bindings, what belongs together, Axel and Valborg, Homer with the Trojan War, Raphael and the Catholicism, Mozart with Don Juan."

In the same manner chamber music and the Hindsgavl Castle are inextricably bound together, in the sense that they form an entity and have become a long accepted tradition.

Seclusion in a magnificent scenery and a convivial gathering in pretty surroundings to the accompaniment of the most heartfelt and intimate music give the spectator and the audience a quite special experience with a multitude of impressions. Exclusive but nevertheless embracing, Sublime and nevertheless quite simple.
